On Friday, December 4, Santa Claus returns to his Winter Wonderland at Brookfield Place, providing a wonderful opportunity for families, friends, couples and co-workers to capture the magic of the holidays. These cherished moments with loved ones will be delivered by Brookfield’s new photography partner, Cherry Hill Photo, with packages ranging in price from $22 to $48. This year, visitors can also snap their own photos in the “Elfie Selfie” set or get the whole family involved with special hours for canine companions during “Santa Paws.”

Visitors to Brookfield Place can experience a variety of activities before or after taking pictures with the man in red, including shopping, dining in Le District’s outdoor Chalet and ice skating at The Rink. During the winter season, Brookfield Place is the home of a new interactive lighting installation, Luminaries, designed by the LAB at Rockwell Group, on display in the Winter Garden from December 2, 2015 to January 10, 2016.
